The Latin American Mission Program (LAMP) invites the public to a presentation, At the Dawn of Peace: A message to PEI from Columbia by Rev. John Molina on Sunday, June 25, 2:00pm, at Our Lady of the Assumption Parish Hall. This is part of LAMP's Annual General Meeting, celebrating 50 years as the Diocesan missionary program. Fr. John has returned recently from a visit to his native country, Columbia, where he celebrated Holy Week in a small coffee growers community in the mountains. His talk will provide us with some elements to understand the reality of the people of a country that is trying to implement the agreements of a long peace process.

He asks: Is there anything Canadians can learn from the experience in Colombia?

The Church needs good, holy priests in every generation:

In the Diocese of Charlottetown, Fr. George Gilliland is the Vocations Director. A priest for approx. 30 years, Fr. George has a wide range of pastoral experience especially with care to the sick. He is open to speak to any parish group or individual about vocations to the priesthood and religious life. To contact Fr. George at the Diocesan Office during regular work hours: 368-8005, or mail: PO Box 907, Charlottetown, PE C1A 7L9. And remember always to pray for our priests and pray that all young people will be guided by the Holy Spirit to the way of life that will bring them the most joy.

The only PEI performance of the Canadian Celtic Choir will be at St. Francis of Assisi Church in Cornwall on June 25 at 7:00pm. Hosted by the Knights of Columbus Council #10808, in partnership the PEI Council of People with Disabilities, $15 tickets can be held at the door by contacting Basil Favaro at 569-8826 / bfavaro@pei.sympatico.ca, Laurie Smythe at the St. Francis of Assisi Office (566-3876), or purchased directly through PEICOD (892-9149) or Wally's Pharmasave in the Cornwall Plaza. It promises to be a great evening celebrating traditional and popular Celtic music.
