

The Month of November

November is the last month of the Church's liturgical year, before the start of the new liturgical year which commences with the First Sunday of Advent. During this month, the Church has a strong tradition of remembering and praying for the dead, whom we call the faithful departed.

While sacrifices, works of charity and prayers assist the faithful departed, the greatest aid for those who have died and need our prayers is the Holy Mass. While we are encouraged to pray for the dead throughout the entire year, we do it in earnest during the month of November and especially so on November 2nd, called The Commemoration of the Faithful Departed, or more commonly known as All Souls Day.

I encourage you to attend mass for those who have died on this day. This is also a good time to make a visit to the cemetery, spending time in remembrance and prayer. ~ Fr. Jim

Remembrance Day - November 11

We recall the sacrifice of those who laboured for our freedom by fighting against tyranny and evil, some of whom made the ultimate sacrifice by the giving of their very lives. Due to Covid-19 restrictions, we will not be celebrating our normal Remembrance Day service. While there will be a 9:00am Mass at St. Joachim's Church for up to 50 people, there will be no formal outdoor memorial and wreath laying ceremony. Wreaths and other items of remembrance may be placed individually at the outdoor memorial monument, at people's discretion.
